High-growth Women's Entrepreneurship

This handbook addresses the need to explore challenges and opportunities for increased numbers of women entrepreneurs in Africa. It provides an overview of the key elements of women's entrepreneurship at several levels: macro (global, regional, national), meso (NGOs, religious groups, academics), and micro (civil society organizations, youth groups, women's organizations). Analysis from multiple events provides a broader explanation of conflict dynamics and helps to fit localized conflict transformation approaches into wider national or regional structures. The high-growth women's entrepreneurs in this volume encourage the psychology, political, and structural dynamics of conflict response and demonstrate how its success is fundamentally linked to the style of effectiveness of leadership, among other factors. The volume is divided into four thematic sections: Part I: The theory and dynamics of conflict response and leadership Part II: Macro-level leadership experiences in conflict response Part III: Meso-level leadership experiences in conflict response and Part IV: Recommendations for improved leadership in conflict response. This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution, peace studies, African politics, security studies, and international relations, in general.

Representations of Islam in the News

This handbook investigates the underlying factors contributing to the very different and often biased representation of Islam in European media. This volume explores the challenges and opportunities for leadership at several levels. Leadership plays a vital role in affecting conflict response but is frequently only examined at the micro level of state, government, and international organizations. Analysis from multiple events provides a broader explanation of conflict dynamics and helps to fit localized conflict transformation approaches into wider national or regional structures.
