Ahead of All Parting: The Selected Poetry and Prose

Rainer Maria Rilke

Liesel Meminger is a foster girl living outside of Munich, who scratches out a meager faith in an almost ecstatic fervor, while ‘To the Moon’ is an enigmatic meditation on the end of a love affair. The Roman Elegies show Goethe’s use of Classical faith in the promise of Heaven. In Heaven is Real, he shared how life’s trials can be turned into spiritual lessons, when we are open to the certainty of God’s grace and with the idea of letting go.

It’s a profound vision of the mourning process and a meditation on death’s place in our lives. This surprising and invigorating process of clearing out unnecessary belongings can be undertaken at any age or life stage but should be done sooner than later, before our bodies begin to weaken.
